- The lecture hall location of this session made the small group collaboration a bit awkward. It also felt like it made people feel hesitant to share out their small group ideas.
- the room was not set up well for the discussion based activities. Other providers in my group were not really open to collaborating
- I presented :)
- I learned that communication is key when talking to property managers/owners

(optional) Please share any recommendations for how to improve our ability to discuss and collaborate on this topic
