- This session topic went a bit over my head as a direct service worker, so it's difficult for me to rate it. I had hoped there would be more information on what I could do in my role to help with fiscal contract compliance, and/or that basic terms and procedures were explained for people coming in without much knowledge or experience who want to learn more about what leaders deal with. If the intention was to gear this session towards an audience of only leaders/managers/compliance specialists, I would have preferred the session description state that more clearly and not tag it as a part of "Frontline Strategies and Best Practices".
